Things to Do in Maplewood, New Jersey

Greenwood Gardens: Greenwood Gardens' mission is to connect people with nature in a historic garden oasis. This 28-acre public garden is a place of horticultural excellence, featuring grottos, spruce trees, wildflower meadows and so much more. You'll be transported to a place of tranquility the moment you step foot in the grounds.

1978 Maplewood Arts Center: For over two decades, 1978 Maplewood Arts Center has provided a home for artists to work, exhibit and interact. Along with classes, workshops, art shows, films and live performances, collaborative art projects are hosted to bring the community together.

Restaurant Lorena's: If you're looking for some of the finest French cuisine, look no further than Restaurant Lorena's. Less than a 10-minute drive from Winchester Gardens, this delightful dining experience features locally sourced food with rotating seasonal menus. And be sure to complete your meal with a luscious dessert - our current favorite is the warm chocolate cake with raspberry puree and Tahitian vanilla ice cream.

Paper Mill Playhouse: A recipient of the Regional Theatre Tony Award, Paper Mill Playhouse brings musical theater to life. Along with education opportunities, the mission of Paper Mill Playhouse is to enrich, entertain and inspire audiences and students each season as the nation's premier musical theater.

New York City: Spend a day exploring the Big Apple! Less than 16 miles from Winchester Gardens, New York City is host to a hub of excitement. There is never a shortage of things to do in the city, from parks and shopping to indulging in a world-class meal. Plus, the New Jersey Transit Train Station is
